Google glass is a new unbelievable invention, which can change your life forever.

We are born with the open-eyed supervision of different technologies, we grow with them, use them in our routine life. Now it is impossible to surprise us with something like a gigantic screen, a very speedy processor or a mobile phone with a lot of the operative memory, not saying about a note-book or a personal computer. I am right, am not I?

Today I want to show you something absolutely new and unusual. So, let`s start.

In 2012 such American company as Google presented some invention, which became a real sensation. This is the Google Glass, which has not any analogy in the world. So, why is the Google Glass better than the usual smartphone? The Google glass has less functions than its predecessor, but when we put our Apple iPhones in the pockets, we come back to the real world and leave our online-life. And the Google glass can correct such situation.

So, what does make such invention as Google Glass singular in the plethora of different modern technologies? Such quality as overtime online-life. You stay with you friends in Facebook or Twitter, even when you go along the street with your hands in the pockets. You can sand the massages, the maps and the photos, which you can make with a help of sound-command. It is possible when you have the Google Glass. Also you can look the weather-forecast, find the nearest dispensary or shop, buy the tickets to cinema or theatre and many other useful things in your day-to-day life.

But there are disadvantages in the Google Glass. I would like to tell you about the right of privacy. There is a small camera, which is integrated in the Google Glass. So, one owner of this invention can photographs you without your permit and even known. The Google Glass is suppressed in Ukraine.

In my work I disclose a topic of modern technologies influence and detect all advantages and disadvantages of it.
